

Moodtune Release Notes: April 17

- Playlist creation functionality
 - Playlists can be added to spotify accounts from generated recommendations
- Updated homepage
 - Generated recommendations are shown in a scrolling container on the homepage
 - All recommendation generation buttons are located at the top of the screen above the generated recommendations container
- Logout functionality
 - There now exists a logout button that allows a user to log out of their account
- User profile has been added
- Statistics page has been updated with scrollbar and selectable time ranges within the stats page.

Moodtune Release Notes: April 10

- Spotify login functionality
 - Users are prompted to login with spotify, allowing them to access recommendation and statistics features.
- Recommendation functionality implemented
 - Able to enter simple genre words to query spotify for 10 track recommendations
- Statistics functionality implemented
 - Able to see your spotify statistics for previous periods of time, able to be selected by the user.
- Login functionality implemented
 - Users are able to login with accounts created through registration.
- Registration functionality implemented
 - Users are able to register new accounts (passwords stored safely with hashed values)
- Token refresh
 - Currently expired tokens can be refreshed manually through the “token refresh” button on the main page (will be automated at a later date)